

What our staff say about working at Lewis-Manning!

- I love working with a wonderful team who are always supportive and can share a laugh with
- We are working together as a team for a great cause
- I have a fulfilling job
- All the lovely sustainable clothes
- They put the patients and staff first
- We care about our employees
- We are making a difference
- It is a caring community
- I love working with my colleagues – thank you
- They help me to achieve personal work goals
- Our patients and our values
- We all truly live and breathe our organisations values – its not just lip service
- I feel what I do really matters and makes a difference
- I feel like I'm making a difference in the community
- I feel part of a team
- Being part of a caring supportive and fun team
- The patients make my day
- We get to help people every day
- I feel valued at work
- Supportive nurses
- Bereavement services one of the best places I have worked
- It's close to my home
- It's the only work place I have ever felt truly valued and listened to in 41 years of nursing

What our staff say about working at Lewis-Manning!

- Staff are really nice and good fun to be with
- I feel part of a great team
- People are kind to each other
- It is viewed as normal to spend quality time with patients
- Positive, inspirational and rewarding
- Fabulous team
- Gives a sense of making a difference
- I feel valued and cared for
- It is an honor to see the impact we have on a daily basis through our patients
- Working with the patients and hearing their stories
- Feeling part of a family and community
- Being part of the hospice makes me very happy
- I love working with an amazing group of people in all departments
- Friendly welcoming place to work
- It is a privilege to be part of something so good
- We all have our individual strengths and admire each others – fundraising is in awe of what the clinical team do
- I personally feel like a ‘cog’ in a well oiled machine, we each do our individual ‘bits’ that collectively make a really big difference to people’s lives. I love being a ‘cog’ in the Lewis-Manning machine. Thank you
- It’s a fabulous team to be part of
- Working with a fantastic team – upstairs and down
- My knowledge and experience can help people
- Working with people that genuinely care about what they do

